Cancer- Immuno- Oncology

Call for Abstracts

October, 17–18, 2018 Lübeck, Germany

www.cancer-immuno-oncology.org

Welcome

Join the newly created Immuno-Oncology international event in Lübeck and exchange about the latest research in immuno-oncology during a comprehensive 2 days workshop.

Lübeck is a perfect place to network and build collaborations with an international mix of researchers from industry and academia. It offers the opportunity to evaluate emerging technologies, sharing experience, brainstorm on developments and future necessities in IO across industry and academia, and influence next-generation immunotherapy programs.

Welcome to Lübeck.
